

The image is a vertical rectangular artwork with rounded corners, featuring a dense, abstract composition of flowers. The background is a deep, textured red. Overlaid on this are various floral shapes in bright blue, yellow, and white. The brushstrokes are visible and expressive, giving the painting a sense of movement and energy. The overall effect is a vibrant, almost surreal representation of a garden. The word 'smartish' is written vertically in a clean, white, sans-serif font on the right side of the image.
