

The image is a vertical, stylized illustration of a forest landscape. The background is a deep blue gradient. In the upper right, a large, bright yellow circle represents the sun or moon. Two black silhouettes of birds are flying across the sky, one above the other. The middle ground features several layers of dark blue, coniferous trees, creating a sense of depth. The foreground is a dark blue silhouette of a forest floor with more trees. The word "smartish" is written vertically in white, lowercase letters on the right side of the image.
