

The image is a vertical rectangular artwork with rounded corners. It features a dense, expressive painting of flowers. The color palette is dominated by deep reds, bright pinks, and various shades of green. There are also patches of blue and white. The brushstrokes are thick and visible, giving the painting a textured, almost impasto quality. In the lower-left foreground, there is a large, solid black silhouette of a person, possibly a woman, looking towards the right. The word "smartish" is written in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font, oriented vertically along the right edge of the image.
